

COASTAL STATE ENFORCEMENT (ARTICLE 220)

Location of		Applicable Law	Type of charge or facts	Measures
Vessel	Violation
Voluntarily in port (Art 220(1))	TS EEZ	Laws and regulations of coastal state - in accordance	Any violation	Proceedings
TS (Art. 220(2))	TS	with the Convention (Art. 21 (2)(f), Art 211(4-7), Art 234) or - applicable international rules and standards	1) Clear grounds for belief, but without prejudice to right of innocent passage 2) Where evidence so warrants	- Physical inspection (Art 226(1)(a)) or - Further physical inspection (Art 226(1)(a)(i-iii)) - Proceedings - Detention
TS or EEZ (Art. 220(3))	EEZ	International rules and standards (or national law conforming with or giving effect to)	Clear grounds for belief	Give information as listed in Art 220(3) - Identity - Registry - Last port - Next port - Information in respect to incident
TS or EEZ (Art. 220(5))	EEZ	International rules and standards (As above)	Clear grounds for belief and substantial discharge causing or threatening significant pollution and vessel has refused to give information or information supplied obviously incorrect	Physical inspection (Further physical inspection (Art.226(1)(a))
TS or EEZ (Art. 220(6))	TS or EEZ	International rules and standards (As above)	Clear objective evidence and discharge is - causing major damage - or threat of major damage to - coastline or - resources of TS/EEZ and provided that evidence so warrants	- Proceedings - Detention (Release Art. 220(7))
TS or EEZ (Art. 220(8))	EEZ (clearly defined area)	National law giving effect to generally accepted rules (Art. 211(5))	Applicable in cases of Art. 220(3-6) accordingly	Measures accordingly (Art. 220(3-6))